CLUB NEWS: Once again, the Currency Club of Chester County is the only club to check in. The latest issue from that club includes an extraordinary article on the one dollar bill. The article is extensive and well illustrated. It could be used as a primer for the new collector. I assume that Dave Stitely, the editor wrote the article. As I have said in the past, the newsletter alone is worth the dues. Their Newsletter comes over the internet, allowing the extensive use of color. As time goes by and more members become computer geeks, perhaps we could consider two versions of the Rag Picker, one via the internet and one printed for traditional members.

Editor's Notes: First of all, will the person who wrote "The Millennium Star Note" please contact me with your identity so I can give you credit when I run it next issue. It was given to me at Central States, but with no name.

Thanks to Peter Huntoon who is sending some of his collection of Rag Pickers in to the Newman Portal. I'll be sending the rest of the necessary issues. We will be holding back a year or two of magazines to thwart frugal (read cheapskates) people who would enjoy our magazine for free without joining our ranks. I am told that clubs that have entered their newsletter in the portal are enjoying club growth. Hopefully this will be our experience as well. Also, since KC was such a success, I'd like to get a meeting together at the next IPMS.

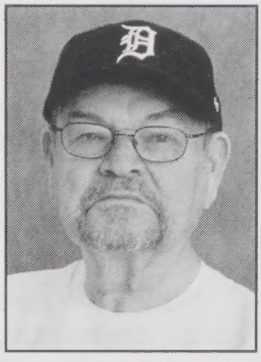
Speaking of the Newman Portal, I just went on it to see if we were posted yet...not yet, BUT, if you want to have some fun checking it out, go to nnp.wustl.edu (Newman numismatic portal, Washington University St. Louis.) It is amazing, with a number of options. For example, I clicked on Heath counterfeit detectors and up popped all the different varieties. Click on a page and it turns so you can read the whole book and check out the various illustrative plates.

OUR COVER: This month's cover is a splendid (PCGS 64 PPQ) $5 1902 National Bank note on The Merchants National Bank of Detroit, with serial numbers 8888. When I showed it to Vice President Larry Falater he designated it a Grinnell note. Allen Mincho of Heritage concurred. I am pursuing a lot number in the Grinnell auction records that would confirm this diagnosis so I can have it re-slabbed to reflect this fact. It is a wonderful (to me) addition to my Detroit collection. Up-date: I just found a reference to my 8888 note it was sold as a sheet in the Grinnell sale.



PRESIDENT'S COLUMN:
I'm just back from a whirlwind spring vacation. I joined my friends Mack Martin and Dennis Schafluetzel by flying down to Atlanta Georgia for the Georgia State Show. Surprisingly a round trip ticket was $100 less expensive than a round trip. Mack picked me up and we drove to Dennis' home in Chattanooga, Tennessee. I'm relating the rest of the trip in my article. We attended the Georgia State Show where I helped set up Exhibit space and judged Junior Exhibits. I found a few confederate notes and enjoyed real Southern Hospitality. If you are ever in the neighborhood of Dalton, Georgia in the spring time, take in this great show. We had a great time and then after more battlefields, proceeded north to the Central States show in Schaumburg, IL. That was as usual, another great show with good presentations, Great exhibits and a $38 million dollar Heritage auction. I was fortunate enough to land a Minneapolis $5 1934B* for my collection along with a North Africa $1 Star. I also found the 8888 Detroit National on the cover at Emporium table. It appears to be a Grinnell note. This was a trade/money combination. It is always nice to be able to convert duplicates for notes I need. At the show I hooked up with long time friend Myles Fenske and we returned home and went on the tour I discussed in my article.

For those of you in the Detroit Metro area, mark your calendars for Sunday, August 2. The Polish American Numismatic Society is holding a 100 table coin show at the American Polish Cultural Center, 2975 East Maple Road (15 mile and Dequindre.) from 10:00Am to 4:00 PM. This is the second largest coin show in Michigan, second only to the Michigan State Show. It's a great show with dealers from a number of states round the Midwest.

All in all, the market seems steady and the auction, as I mentioned grossed an amazing $38 million. As usual, the auction itself was sparsely attended and lots of action came from the internet bidders. I understand the trend to bid at home, or even from your hotel room if you seek comfort, but the show itself is always a pleasure for me to renew old friendships and begin new ones. If you want to expand your knowledge, I think a big show is always a positive experience.

How I spent my Spring Vacation

by

Bill Brandimore

First I must preface my article with an embarrassing correction to last issues article on Queen Mary, wife of George V. At the end of the article I mistakenly stated that the ship was named the Queen Elizabeth, it was of course the Queen Mary, George's wife.

Having corrected last issues mistake, let me share my Numismatic, Historical, Natural Wonder spring excursion with you. It began when my friend Mack Martin picked me up at the Atlanta airport where we proceeded up to Dennis Schaflugel's home in Chattanooga, Tennessee. I was there to attend the Georgia Numismatic State Show in Dalton Georgia. First, however, we went off on the trail of the General, a Confederate locomotive that was stolen by daring Union men from the stop at Kennesaw. A determined conductor began chasing the escaping locomotive. The Union men cut the telegraph lines so no one would know about the theft. Meanwhile the Confederates in pursuit on a hand car came upon a yard engine and then a regular locomotive on a side track and the pursuit was on in hot fashion. They passed Tunnel Hill and ran out of wood fuel and steam and were captured north of Ringold. The men who didn't escape were hung as spies. By Tunnel Hill the battle of Franklin was fought. There General Hood lost a leg. He had it buried so he could be reunited with it at his death. They never got together and the leg is supposedly still there under a marker stating "General Hood's leg." We visited Sheridan's quarters at Tunnel Hill and got to see the General in a museum at Kennesaw. We also toured Lookout Mountain and Chickamauga. From Lookout Mountain we could see Missionary Ridge where the last battle for Chattanooga was fought and 19 year old Lieutenant Douglas McArthur led his men up the ridge with the call "On Wisconsin." Seeing the Union men coming up the hill the Confederates fled and The Union took control of Missionary Hill and Chattanooga.

We then went to Dalton, Georgia for the Georgia Numismatic Association Spring show. It was a great show and well attended. If you get near Dalton in the spring, take in the show. Folks were friendly and hospitable. Mack was especially eager to tell me the true story of the War of Northern Aggression. After the show we headed north for Central States where I was able to find several notes for my collection. At Schaumburg, my old traveling partner Myles Fenske and I hooked up and after a great Central States show we headed to my house and visited Greenfield Village, the Henry Ford Museum and the Ford Rouge plant where they make Ford 150 pickups, which they are selling at the rate of 1 every 43 seconds. Myles and I then left for his brother's house in Ohio where we spent three days visiting President Hayes home, President Garfield's monument in Cleveland and the NFL Hall of fame in Canton as well as President Harding's home also in Canton. Not weary yet we left for Gettysburg where we toured the battlefield with a guide and climbed Little Round Top. We viewed the area where the Michigan 24th of the Iron Brigade fought the North Carolina 26th, incurring 85% casualties. We then visited the Angle, where the last of Picket's men were fought off by Union trips. Still full of energy we drove north to Niagara, New York and visited Niagara Falls and ventured off on the Maid of the Mist VI where we were misted upon. Then off to the Canadian side to view the Falls from that very scenic location. Exhausted we headed home the next morning. And that's how I spent my spring vacation.

A Report on the KC Show

by

Bill Brandimore

A retired Detroit Police Officer friend, Keith Thode and I flew to Kansas City on Thursday, June 8. We met Fred Schwan (of MPC Fester fame) and went into KC to tour the Union Station. It is a powerful building, built to accommodate the prosperous and awe ordinary folks. Then it was off to the Negro League Baseball museum, which told the story of the importance of the Leagues to the community and the impact Black players made when they finally got to play in the big leagues. I bought my wife a Detroit Star's cap and we were off to a Vegan restaurant to accommodate my friend Keith. We had a great Vegan meal. We dropped Fred off and picked him up in the morning to attend the show. The Crown Hotel was certainly elegant and the Convention Hall was a bit more luxurious than Memphis accommodations. We started off visiting my favorite Canadian dealer Don Olmstead and checked in with Steve Perakis, who was accompanied by his dad, Alex, who started their business a number of years ago. Exhibits were terrific, as usual and we shopped fairly effectively. The show was well attended for a new venue and the dealers seemed to be happy with business. A number of quality presentations were offered and enjoyed. I hooked up with my Fractional friends and we had a nice dinner at Jack Stacks where the appetizers were magnificent and Bar-B-Q wasn't bad either. A stop at the auction showed lots of World activity. We were off to our motel after dropping Fred off and then picked him up in the morning. We put some bids in at the auction and set off for the World War I memorial and museum. The structure dominates the park like area as a 30 or more story tower. The view from the top was excellent and the museum itself was comprehensive. We spent hours there enjoying the exhibits. We will probably go again next year, if the show is in KC. Lyn Knight indicated that he was having trouble scheduling for next year. He might have to use another venue or hold the show in late May.

Back at the show we hit Don Olmstead who had just purchased a nice Extra Fine 1912 $5 Train note, which I snapped up and you'll see on a future cover. All told, it was a Memphis moment as we got to visit old friends, make new ones and just plain enjoy the companionship of like minded folks.

Here is a great club you might want to consider if you have any interest in United States Fractional Currency of the Civil War period.

With the $30 application fee you will receive two books along with one year's membership. The first is The Encyclopedia of Fractional Currency by Milton Friedberg. It is the definitive explanation of all Fractional Currency notes and the various Specimen, Proof and Experimental issues. Well illustrated, it will tell you perhaps more than you want to know.

The second book is called the Simplified Encyclopedia. As the name implies it is a more compact book dealing with less arcane issues. This is a good place to start if you are a beginner, with the regular Encyclopedia as a great reference to delve into for more information.

The FCCB meets every June at the Memphis Paper money show. Members also get together informally at the FUN Show in Florida.

The FCCB is composed of dedicated members who enjoy sharing their knowledge. Join us and join the fun of Fractional Currency!
